Who is Jacqueline Hyde?

Jacqueline has been immersed in the Burlesque Arts since 2005. Her style of dance and performance art has a strong influence in the Ballroom and Latin Dances. She has experience performing all over the US, Canada, and Europe in both Burlesque and Ballroom. With over 15 years experience as a professional Ballroom and Latin dancer, Jacqueline is mentor to individuals (both Men and Women), small and large groups in burlesque and cabaret dance. Jacqueline holds titles of best soloist from the Pennsylvania Burlesque Festival (Formerly Jim Thorpe Burlesque Festival), the Boston Burlesque Expo and international dance titles for lyrical, hip hop and cabaret.

Currently Jacqueline is a member and lead choreographer of Dragontown Burlesque (Jim Thorpe, PA).

Jacqueline the Performer

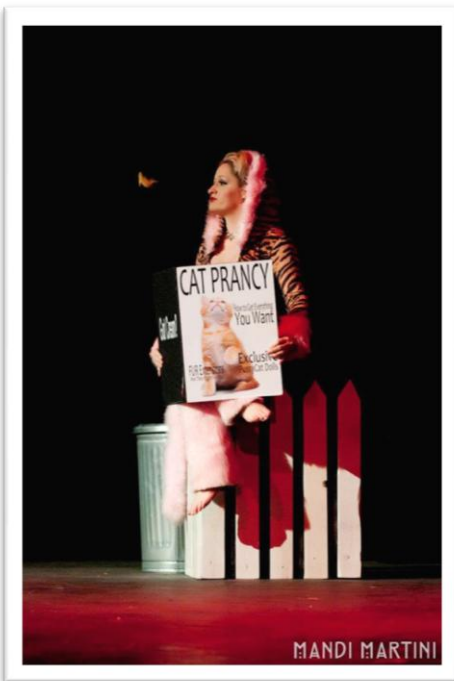

Jacqueline has been performing burlesque since 2005. She holds multiple titles as Best Soloist from the Jim Thorpe Burlesque Festival, and the Boston Burlesque Expo. She has performed across the United States in not only festivals but a wide range of venues and productions. Jacqueline has also performed in Canada and Europe, having produced/performed in Paris, performed in Rome, and in Milan. Jacqueline has also placed 5th in the world 3 times for her skills in Lyrical, Jazz and Hip Hop.

Jacqueline the Instructor

As a professional Ballroom and Latin dancer and instructor, Jacqueline has expanded her knowledge of dance and performance to the burlesque world. Jacqueline has also taught top modeling schools and agencies around the country, to provide skill sets to new and existing models and actors. She has become an avid researcher of skills of legends (both alive and past). In the past, Jacqueline has owned and operated ballroom dance schools, only to follow her heart, move to Jim Thorpe PA and open the Jacqueline Hyde International School of Burlesque and Cabaret Arts. She focuses her attention on the whole package of an entertainer, while at the same time provides multiple options for the students to select from based upon their financial availability. Jacqueline also mentors performers overseas, which broadened her scope of teaching to providing the first ever Online School for Burlesque and Cabaret Arts, which will be available in January of 2012.

Jacqueline the Business Woman

In an effort to increase people's awareness of the brand of Jacqueline Hyde, she looked to foster a product that would capture her essence. This was how Jacqueline Hyde Teas evolved. Jacqueline has a wide variety of Tea products that not only promote her name, but allows for a tease of the taste buds. Each tea blend is based upon acts that are developed or are in final stages of development. She expanded her Tea brand to include Coffee Beans, Biscotti and treats. Yet what showgirl or fan would be without merchandise, tea wares and other fun stuff. Because Jacqueline is a multidimensional individual herself, she did not want to limit what wonders could be had. Hence, Jacqueline Hyde Teas has become Jacqueline Hyde Emporium, with the moto "Teas, Treats and Things". The Jacqueline Hyde Emporium houses the Tea line, Coffee Line, Treats, Custom Aprons with fabrics designed by Jacqueline. In addition, there are fun mug sets, jammies and to launch in 2012, a "Sin" sational cosmetic line to include everything from foundation to make up, from Skin Care to Hair Care. And what bombshell would be complete without out their little puppy? Jacqueline has partnered up with Ritzy K9 – Tea Cup and Small Pup couture to produce stylish little puppy clothes. She works with organizations (small to medium) specifically within the United States to provide support back to her homeland's economic empowerment.
